

SOUTH AFRICA'S CONSTITUTIONAL COURT RULES FOR ETV IN DISPUTE WITH THE MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS & DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES OVER DIGITAL MIGRATION

Category: Infrastructure and Telecommunications, Media and OTT, Technology Law
written by PPM Attorneys | June 28, 2022

It held that it was not procedurally rational for the Minister to set the analogue switch-off date without adequate notice to the industry and affected parties, like Media Monitoring Africa and SOS, to seek their views on the matter.

It declared the analogue switch-off date and the imposed set-top box registration deadline unconstitutional, invalid and set aside.
